

Cameron Bennett

Cameron began his Tenor drumming career with Seafield and District Pipe Band Novice Juvenile Pipe Band and progressed to Grade 3B with the band Cameron then made his Grade 1 debut where he joined the Lothian and Border Police Pipe Band under Pipe Major Ian Duncan and Leading Drummer Jake Jorgensen. Cameron then played two seasons with Home-town band Torphichen and Bathgate Pipe Band before progressing onto Shotts and Dykehead Caledonia Pipe Band under Leading Drummer Jim Kilpatrick MBE where he won the World Championship Drumming Title in Grade 1 in 2014. Cameron has recently moved to Copenhagen, Denmark from his hometown of Bathgate in Scotland, where he is a senior player in the Balagan Pipe Band Grade 2 Bass Section. Cameron has also had some relative solo success, placing 2nd at the International Tenor Drumming Championships and winning many regional solo contests in Scotland.